Celebrate National Healthcare Decisions Day

It is time to have the Conversation of Your Life to let your family, friends and healthcare providers understand your wishes through advance care planning. The Conversation of Your Life program aims to provide all the pertinent information you may need to communicate your end-of-life care wishes ahead of time, saving your loved ones from having to make emotionally taxing decisions on your behalf when the time comes.

Following a brief discussion, Mayor DiDonato and Atlantic County Surrogate James Curcio will lead by example and sign their own advance directive.
